For Representative. GERMAN D. HOLLIDAY.

Judge Holliday of Berea is candidate for Representative from this County, and merits the support of all patriotic voters, regardless of party.

The Judge is a man of proved ability and public spirit. He is a temperance man in practice as well as in principle. And he is acquainted with conditions in Kentucky in such a way that he will be most useful in the work of tax adjustment which should be taken up by our next legislature.

THE CITIZEN IS APPRECIATED.

Pine Mountain, Ky.
No periodical comes here that we value as much as The Citizen.
Very truly,
Katherine Pettit.

Bad luck may come this year or next, and put me out of killer, but I am not distressed or vexed, my eyes no teardrops filter. I'd rather think that coming days will brighten her and better, and so I sing my song of praise, and whoop and fear my sweater. I may fall down and break a leg, as you say, with emotion, and have to buy about a keg of powder, pill and potion; but while my legs are on my frame, no trouble will I borrow; I'll prance around and play the game and have no truck with sorrow. My aunt may come and bring her kid to visit for a while; on joy, you say, 'twill put

LOOKING FORWARD

By Walt Mason.

The bid, but, for the love of Michael, why should I fret till she shall start to share my humble potage? No aunt can break a brave man's heart until she's in his cottage. Ten million clumps, all over the earth, are always muffled-drumming and missing all there is of mirth, through fear of what's a-coming. Oh, friends, today let us be glad and keep our tops a-spinning; and if tomorrow we are sad, the next day we'll be grinning! Let's always keep our smiles on straight, to sorrow make resistance; no folly's greater than to wait for troubles in the distance.

planning to move to Ohio in a few days to make their future home.—Born to Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Flanery, a girl. Her name is Myrtle May.—Mr. Brack Maupin of Kingston has been spending a few days in this vicinity of the County.—Died on the 26th inst., W. K. Bicknell, the oldest citizen of this County, being nearly 90 years of age. He has been a member of the Church of Christ at Cave Springs ever since it was organized in about 1850, and was never known to miss a church meeting until he was taken sick about one year ago. He had been one of the Elders of the church for the past forty years. In his death our County loses a good citizen and our church a devoted member. Six children, two sons and four daughters survive him.—Mrs. Bettie Trent, who has typhoid, is slowly recovering.—Ellen Simpson is very low at this writing.
